Christmas in July
July 26, 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm

At MCM, we love the Christmas holidays too much to only celebrate once a year! That’s why, we are hosting Christmas in July! From photos with tropical Santa to making hot cocoa ice cream sundaes, it will be just like the holidays but with a fun, summer twist!

One of the best parts about Christmas in July is that families can come dressed in their comfiest pajamas ready to go on a train ride, make holiday crafts, and test out eight brand new toys from Louis Lefleur’s Trading Post. And as all great Christmas nights do, the event will end with a cozy bedtime story for the whole family to enjoy.

Santa, snacks, train rides, new toys, and pajamas in July... what could be better than that?!

Communication and Emotions Day with Daniel Tiger
July 20, 10 am - 2 pm

Daniel Tiger’s Neighborhood: A Grr-ific Exhibit at MCM brings to life common themes presented in the award-winning, PBS Kids television series. At Communication and Emotions Day, we’ll focus on teaching children about the types of skills that can help them best understand their feelings and those of their neighbors from a handful of community experts!

• Upside Down Therapy’s Emily Suggs will demonstrate interactive play therapy that teaches children how to communicate and process their feelings.
• Community Problem Solvers, an amazing group of local high school students, will join us to facilitate fun activities that promote positive, kind communication amongst children in an effort to decrease bullying.
• Genevieve C. Garrett, LCSW, MPH, CHES Social Worker III with UMMC’s the Center for the Advancement of Youth (CAY) will attend the event to talk with children and caregivers about positive communication techniques and much more!
