Media Advisory • December 27, 2019

Little Revelers are invited to ring in the new year during the Mississippi Children's Museum's Noon Year's Eve celebration on Tuesday, December 31.

What: Noon Year's Eve Celebration

When: Tuesday, December 31 from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm

Where: Mississippi Children's Museum
2145 Museum Blvd. Jackson, MS
www.mschildrensmuseum.org

Why: The Mississippi Children's Museum is ringing in the new year with special guests, Marshall the Fire Truck Pup from Paw Patrol and Leonardo from Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles. Festivities will include countdowns at 10:00 am, 11:00 am, and a grand finale at noon with confetti cannons, and a traditional style countdown with a balloon drop, along with fun musical entertainment.

Visuals: An estimated 1,000 guests will gather at the MS Children's Museum to celebrate with confetti cannons, a balloon drop, and meet and greets with characters. Journey to the North Pole exhibit will be open with ceiling to floor curtains of twinkling lights, train tables, child-size post office, and a 45-foot Snowflake Slide.

All media inquiries are welcome.
