Mississippi Children's Museum - Meridian to Celebrate Dr. Seuss' Silly Birthday

MEDIA ADVISORY • FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE • 02/17/2020

Meridian, MS - The Mississippi Children's Museum - Meridian will host Dr. Seuss' Silly Birthday Celebration on Saturday, February 29 from 9:00 am - 12:00 noon at The Mississippi Arts & Entertainment Experience (The MAX) in downtown Meridian on the corner of Front Street and 22nd Avenue.

This is East Mississippi's 4th Annual Dr. Seuss celebration that anticipates drawing in hundreds of children and families for a dynamic, multi-sensory experience into Seuss' literary world. This event is made possible with the help of MCM-Meridian Partners, The MAX, Junior Auxiliary of Meridian, Algix, Meridian Symphony Association, and Jean's Restaurant. This event is free to the public.

What: MCM-Meridian's Dr. Seuss' Silly Birthday Celebration

When: Saturday, February 29, 2020
9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon

Where: The Mississippi Arts & Entertainment Experience (The MAX)
Corner of Front Street and 22nd Avenue
Meridian, MS 39301

Activities will include:

Learning how to make green eggs and ham with our friends from Jean's Restaurant, exploring the science of Bartholemu's oobleck with our own real scientists from Algix, hearing animated readings of Dr. Seuss' books, creating Dr. Seuss face masks and picture frames, hopping in a Thing 1 and Thing 2 sack race, singing "happy birthday" with the Meridian Symphony, and enjoying a slice of birthday cake

Visuals:

Dr. Seuss characters interacting with guests, families dressed in Seuss-themed costumes, green eggs & ham cooking demonstrations, STEM themed activities with children, a photobooth with Dr. Seuss characters, and a performance by the Meridian Symphony followed by a blast of confetti

All media inquiries are welcome. In case of inclement weather, the event will be moved inside The MAX. For any questions, please contact Rebecca Jackson, Marketing Coordinator, at rebecca@mcm.ms or at 601.207.5323.
