Mississippi Children's Museum celebrates Dr. Seuss' Silly Birthday Celebration

The Mississippi Children's Museum provides children an opportunity to experience characters from some of Dr. Seuss' most-beloved books.

Jackson, Miss. (February 12, 2018) – Visit the Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) on Saturday, March 3 from 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. for Dr. Seuss' Silly Birthday Celebration! This annual celebration is highly anticipated to draw over 2,000 children and families for a dynamic, multisensory experience in Seuss' literary world. This event is sponsored in part by the Barksdale Reading Institute and Paul Moak Subaru.

MCM encourages visitors to create their own great mustache inspired by the Lorax. Create Truffula Trees from the Lorax and more crafts with frills and other recycled products. Bring home memories and fun photos of Thing 1 and Thing 2! Don't forget J.C. Patterson and the special story he will read to you! Join us for silly stories, oobleck experiments and a green-eggs-and-ham eating grand time!

Due to limited parking, guests are encouraged to ride the Big Red Wagon from the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum to MCM. Transportation will be free of charge and last throughout the day for guests. No reservation is required.

"When you hear the name Dr. Seuss, you almost can't help but smile. He was such an inspiration and that's what we aim for every day," said President and CEO, Susan Garrard. "MCM encourages children to think outside the box and explore a world of literacy, storytelling and laughter in learning."

MCM strives to provide unparalleled experiences through innovative programs, special events and permanent exhibitions targeted to reach children during critical learning years.

All activities are included in general admission and museum membership. For more information, visit www.mschildrensmuseum.org.
