Mississippi Children's Museum celebrates Dr. Seuss' Birthday

The Mississippi Children's Museum provides children an opportunity to experience characters from many of Dr. Seuss' most-beloved books.

Jackson, Miss. (February 4, 2019) – Make plans to visit the Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) on Saturday, March 2 from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. for Dr. Seuss' Silly Birthday! This annual celebration is one of the highlights of the year for MCM visitors who look forward to experiencing Dr. Seuss' magical literary world. The Barksdale Reading Institute and The Radio People help sponsor this event.

MCM invites you to join us for a Seuss-inspired fantastic, fun day! You'll get messy with ooey-gooey oobleck while learning fun science facts, explore the museum on a Seuss themed scavenger hunt, and create your own Thing 1 or Thing 2 mask! Make your own Truffula Trees from the Lorax and test your skills at egg racing! Throughout the day, you're invited to readings of Dr. Seuss books. Bring home memories and a photo of yourself with Dr. Seuss and Thing 1 and Thing 2! Join us for Lorax finger puppet making and a green eggs and Seuss kabob eating grand time!

Due to limited parking, guests are encouraged to ride the free shuttle bus from the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum/Smith Wills parking lot to MCM. Round trip, free transportation will be provided throughout the day. No reservation is required.

"When you hear the name Dr. Seuss, you almost can't help but smile. He was such an inspiration and that's what we aim for every day," said President and CEO, Susan Garrard. "MCM encourages children to think outside the box and explore a world of literacy, storytelling and laughter in learning."

MCM strives to provide unparalleled experiences through innovative programs, special events and permanent exhibitions targeted to reach children during critical learning years. All activities are included in general admission and museum membership. For more information, visit www.mschildrensmuseum.org.
