Alexis Renee Heath Named MCM Volunteer of the Month

PRESS RELEASE • FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE • 12/10/18

Alexis Renee Heath has been recognized as an outstanding volunteer at Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) and has been named "Volunteer of the Month" for November.

Heath, an eighth-grade honor roll student at Jackson Preparatory School, has volunteered 30 hours since October, all while also being a member of the Spirit Dance Team, Cross Country Team, Swim Team, and Tennis Team. Even with a busy schedule, she found time to volunteer at MCM. "Volunteering is important to me because it is an opportunity to give back to the community" shared Heath. "I chose to volunteer at MCM because I get to meet and interact with kids from all around Mississippi. Places like the Mississippi Children's Museum create a place for children to learn and grow in a fun and interactive environment!"

Sharon Griffin, MCM's Volunteer Coordinator, described Heath as being responsible, motivated, confident, and dependable, all of the qualities Griffin looks for in a volunteer. "Her amazing personality brings a smile to anyone she is around!" added Griffin.

"My experience at the Mississippi Children's Museum has been rewarding and I look forward to volunteering for many years to come" commented Heath.

MCM is honored to have Alexis Renee Heath assisting us as a volunteer and a role model for others.
