New Holiday Exhibit Opening at the Mississippi Children's Museum – Meridian in December

PRESS RELEASE • FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE • 11/03/2022

The Mississippi Children's Museum – Meridian is adding a new temporary exhibit to its 2nd annual Winter WONDER-Land experience.

Meridian, Miss. (November 3, 2022) – The Mississippi Children's Museum – Meridian (MCM-Meridian) plans to spread holiday cheer during its annual Winter WONDER-Land experience, taking place from December 3rd – December 26th.

This holiday season, MCM-Meridian will transform into a magical Winter WONDER-Land decked with snow, twinkling lights, an 18-foot holiday tree, and festive tunes inspiring an atmosphere of joy. Families can look forward to spending Sundays with Santa, participating in cookie decorating classes, creating holiday crafts, and exploring the all-new Snowflake Village exhibit.

Featuring an enchanting sock skating rink, snowball tossing area, a snowman-building activity, and more, the Snowflake Village exhibit will bring a new and exciting element of fun to the Winter WONDER-Land experience.

MCM-Meridian Members and Partners will be the first guests to explore the new Snowflake Village exhibit during exclusive holiday events, including:

- December 1st from 6-8 PM: Merry Little Christmas (Partners-only family celebration)
- December 2nd from 6-8 PM: Peppermint & PJs (Members-only tree lighting event)

Families interested in attending Merry Little Christmas or Peppermint & PJs, but are not yet Partners or Members of the museum, can join any time before December 1st to receive a digital invitation.

Winter WONDER-Land will open to the public on December 3rd at 9 AM. General admission is $10 per person and is included in museum membership. To learn more, visit www.mcmmeridian.org.
