(Jackson, MS) – The Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) is honored to be recognized as one of the Best Children's Museums by USA Today for the 2023 Reader's Choice Travel Awards.

Twenty museums were nominated by an expert panel and then the nominees were voted on by museum supporters and USA Today readers. The Mississippi Children's Museum was recognized as 4th in the "USA Today 10Best Children's Museums in the U.S." list and is part of USA Today's annual '10Best Readers' Choice Awards.

"It is an honor to be recognized as one of the best children's museums in the country," said Susan Garrard, MCM President, "MCM is the state's largest educational institution for children and provides a safe, imaginative space for children and families of all backgrounds to play, learn, and grow. To be recognized nationally is a testament to our steadfast commitment to provide excellence and unparalleled experiences to our visitors."

MCM would like to thank our members, guests, and community for voting daily to help us receive this recognition. USA Today's '10Best Awards provides travelers with the top attractions, things to see and do, and top destinations in the U.S. and the world. About the Mississippi Children's Museum

The Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with a mission of creating unparalleled experiences to inspire excellence and a lifelong joy of learning in all children. MCM's two award-winning museums in Jackson and Meridian collectively offer over 100,000-square feet of exhibits and educational programming designed around five primary initiatives, Literacy, STEAM, Health and Nutrition, Cultural Arts, and Mississippi Heritage – the keys to helping our children mature into healthy and productive adult learners. MCM offers exceptional resources for children, families, and educators through MCM at Home virtual programming, traveling exhibits and programs, community outreach, Launch into Learning afterschool program, professional development for educators, and Talk from the Start, an initiative for parents and caregivers to promote language development in children from birth to five years old.

MCM is honored to have received an Institute of Museum and Library Services National Medal, the Mississippi Tourism Association Governor's Award for Travel Attraction of the Year, and USA Today's '10Best Travel Award for Best Children's Museum. Learn more: www.mschildrensmuseum.org
