MCM PARTNERS

SUPPORTING THE MISSION AND VISION
OF THE MISSISSIPPI CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

About MCM Partners

Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) Partners is made up of individuals who financially support the operations of the museum through sponsorships, fundraisers, and volunteer hours to help MCM succeed in their vision of inspiring Mississippi's children from all backgrounds to discover and achieve their potential. Since the museum opened, Partners has raised over one million dollars, all of which has gone directly to the museum to bridge the gap between the price of admission and the cost of operation.

MCM in the Community

The Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) takes fun seriously and is committed to providing children with innovative learning experiences that spark creativity and curiosity while increasing its reach to diverse populations throughout the state. MCM achieves this goal not only through hosting family literacy and STEAM programming and events throughout the year, but also through Launch into Learning, MCM's afterschool program. In partnership with Jackson Public Schools, MCM hosts both grant-funded and tuition-based students from McWillie Elementary, Obama Magnet Elementary, and Wells APAC. Now in its third year, Launch into Learning has not only contributed to an overall improvement in students' academic performance but has also garnered praise from 88% of caregivers, who report that their children are more engaged in their schoolwork since participating in MCM's afterschool program.

A signature project of the Junior League of Jackson

The Mississippi Children's Museum is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization, and receives both private and public funding.
