Meridian, Miss. (February 20, 2025) – Make plans to visit the Mississippi Children's Museum – Meridian (MCM-Meridian) on Saturday, March 1, from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. for Dr. Seuss' Silly Birthday Celebration presented by New South Ford.

Known as one of our guests' favorite events of the year, we look forward to welcoming visitors from across the region to celebrate the world-renowned children's author, Dr. Seuss.

Crafts and readings of Dr. Seuss' most popular books will be enjoyed throughout the day with special guests. Characters including Thing 1, Thing 2, Cat in the Hat, and The Lorax will make an appearance and engage with guests. At noon, cheers will erupt as we sing, "happy birthday" and enjoy tasty birthday cake.

This annual celebration aims to inspire a love of reading and learning in children as they immerse themselves in the imaginative works of Dr. Seuss. Prior to the event, MCM-Meridian will host a limited number of students for a special Field Trip Friday opportunity on February 28.

Costumes are encouraged. All activities are included in general admission and museum membership. For more information, visit mcmmeridian.org.
