Explore the Final Frontier at the Mississippi Children's Museum's Annual Space Day!

PRESS RELEASE • FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE • 03/06/26

Jackson, Miss. – Launch into Spring Break at the Mississippi Children's Museum (MCM) during Space Day on Saturday, March 7, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Explore the final frontier with a day dedicated to all things space—from rockets and astronauts to space food and beyond. Through hands-on activities and engaging programs, guests will discover what it's like to travel to space and experience life as an astronaut. This year's event debuts an inflatable planetarium, where children can climb inside to visually explore the galaxy!

Space Day is designed to spark curiosity and introduce children to exciting career possibilities in science, technology, engineering, art, and mathematics (STEAM). Bring your aspiring astronauts for a day of science fact, science fiction, and out-of-this-world fun!

About the Mississippi Children’s Museum

The Mississippi Children’s Museum (MCM) is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization with a mission of creating unparalleled experiences to inspire excellence and a lifelong joy of learning in all children. MCM’s two award-winning museums in Jackson and Meridian collectively offer over 100,000-square feet of exhibits and educational programming designed around five primary initiatives, Literacy, STEAM, Health and Nutrition, Cultural Arts, and Mississippi Heritage – the keys to helping our children mature into healthy and productive adult learners. MCM offers exceptional resources for children, families, and educators through The LIFT, traveling exhibits and programs, community outreach, Launch into Learning afterschool program, professional development for educators, and innovative literacy and language development programs: Talk from the Start and Reach Out and Read. MCM is honored to have received an Institute of Museum and Library Services National Medal, the Mississippi Tourism Association Governor’s Award for Travel Attraction of the Year, and USA Today’s 10Best Travel Award for Best Children’s Museum.
